From The Editor

HAPPY HALLOWEEN!

Welcome to the October issue of The Summitt Family Quarterly. I guess the most important piece of news I should tell you is that Mary is doing fine. She has recovered from her broken ankles and is now hobbling around the house and even comes down to the office again now. She has an air brace on the right ankle but otherwise she doesn't have any casts or braces anymore. We want to thank all of you who emailed or called about her.

This issue has some really great stuff. Back in the early 1970's, my family and I were living in Jonesboro, Arkansas. We lived out north of town on Highway 141. I had started searching for the family roots a couple of years before but really wasn't getting very far. About that time, a Bill Summitt and his family moved in across the highway from us. We weren't able to figure out how they were connected at that time. That's why I am so excited and happy to see Paul C. Summitt's article on William Harrison Summitt. This article answers a lot of questions for me.

You'll also notice that we're continuing to publish the notes from the St. Paul's Lutheran Church Records. These records are extremely interesting in how they provide insight into

LINE OF WILLIAM HARRISON SUMMITT

Introduction

This is a brief story of a remarkably uniform line of William Harrison Summitts stretching from the birth of the original William Harrison Summitt in Nicholas county, Kentucky about 1829 to a modern William Harrison Summitt III currently living in Arkansas--a name line broken only once in those 170 years. The original William Harrison Summitt was rooted in the early Summitt settlers of Kentucky who came to settle Summit Station (Fort) in current Nicholas county about 1783. See, Early Kentucky Summitt Families, The Summitt Family Quarterly, Vol. 4, issue 1 (April 1998) and Kentucky Summitts--The Second Generation, Vol. 4, Issue 2 (July 1998). The information contained herein has been drawn from material supplied by numerous individuals, particularly Donna Wade Summitt, wife of the late William Harrison Summitt Sr., of Ash Flat, Arkansas, Myron and Mary Elizabeth Robbins of Sheridan, Indiana, Glen Summit of Beverly, Massachusetts, and David and Jean Simrak of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

The generations of William Harrison Summitt are:

George and Rosannah Graham Summitt
James and Mariah Barnett Summitt
William Harrison and Isabelle Morris Summitt
William Harrison and Martha Ellen Klingler Summitt
Mitchell H. Summitt and Goldie Sherley

Glen Summitt has provided us with an update to the descendent list of William Ira Summitt that you won't want to miss reading either.

Now, on with other news: As some of you know, I've been busy moving the Web site around and creating a new service. By the time you read this I hope to have all of the new options available.

1. I've moved the site to my own server now so (hopefully) there won't be as much down time as we were experiencing with the previous host.

William Harrison Summitt Sr. and Alberta Sherley

William Harrison Summitt Jr. and Lucetra Stevens

William Harrison Summitt III

(Author Note: I have not included Christian and Marie Stahlern Sammet (Summitt) at the top of the list, although there is a sound argument that they were George's parents.)

The William Harrison Summitt Name Begins

The first William Harrison Summitt Sr. was born about 1829 in Nicholas County, Kentucky to James and Mariah Summitt. James and Mariah had been married in Nicholas county, Kentucky on October 18, 1818. We only know of three children: Sarah Jane; William, and James. There were probably a number of other children in the family since the 1850 census is the first tabulation of this family.

This first William Harrison Summitt (ca. 1829-) went to Ripley County, Indiana in the early 1850s. There he married Isabelle Ann Morris on December 24, 1853. The 1860 census for that county shows that William Summitt was a 32 year old farmer born in Kentucky, with his wife Isabella age 32 born in Ohio, and children James age 7, Ann M. age 5, William age 4, Jacob age 3 and Elijah age 1. Another source noted an additional child named Serena born in 1865 (WFT, Vol. 11, #3826). All of the children noted in the census were indicated as being born in Indiana. Myron Robbins notes that ultimately there were ten children in the family. Myron also notes that William Harrison Summitt Senior sold his share of the Summitt Station tract land he had inherited in Nicholas county--which was one-half of thirty-four acres to his sister Sarah Jane for $50 March 7, 1881. The deed noted that at the time he and Isabelle were living in Jefferson county, Indiana.

This author believes William Harrison Summitt Jr. was born in Ripley county, Indiana, on April 10, 1856. His parents were married in Ripley county in 1853 and the 1860 census lists all the children in the family at the time as being born in Indiana. Still, it is not clear where he was born. There was, in fact, an apparent family tradition that he had been born in Kentucky and came to Indiana at a young age. The 1900 and 1910 census' indicate he was born in Kentucky. Myron Robbins thought he was born in Kentucky and came to Indiana as a small lad. His obituary also states that he came from Kentucky to Indiana as a small boy. Of course, there is a possibility that the family had returned to Kentucky at the time of his birth, but this is probably not the case.

William Harrison Jr. married Martha Ellen Klingler (Clingler) on December 8, 1880. Myron notes that she was born in Boone County, Indiana, in February 1862. Myron noted that Martha Ellen Klingler was the daughter of Richard P. and Eliza Broughard Klingler married in 1847, probably in Boone county. Richard P. Klingler was one of the younger members of the very large family of Reverend John Klingler who traced his history back to Kentucky and then Pennsylvania. According to Myron, William and Martha Ellen spent their whole lives in Boone and Hamilton counties and helped erect many of the buildings in Sheridan. William Harrison Jr. moved to Sheridan, Indiana in 1895.

They had five children: Almeda (June June 14, 1882), Mary Frances (born June 14, 1882), Bessie May (born November 28, 1886), Mitchell H. (born January 9, 1888), and Grover Harlan (born January 22, 1895).

The 1900 census finds William Harrison Jr. & family in Hamilton County, Indiana. Four children are still at home: Mary F. born February 1882; Bessie M. born 1885; Mitchell H. born January 1888, and Grover H. born January 1895.

The 1910 census finds William Harrison Jr. and family still in Hamilton County, Indiana. William Harrison is listed as 57 years old and born in Kentucky. His wife, Martha E. is listed as 48 years old and born in Indiana. Two children and a grandson are still in the household: Mitchell age 21, Grover age 15 and grandson Willis Farmer age 10. Almeda's first husband was named Roy Farmer.

William Harrison Summitt Jr. died January 21, 1934, at the age of 77 years, 9 months, and 11 days. He is buried at Crown View Cemetery, Sheridan, Hamilton County, Indiana. All of his sibling preceded him in death except 2 brothers--Elijah of California and James S. of North Vernon, Indiana.

The following obituary was copied out of the Noblesville Ledger, February 5, 1934, p. 5:

William Harrison Summitt, son of William Harrison and Isobel Summitt was born in Bourbon County Kentucky April 10, 1856. Departed this life January 21, 1934, at the age 77 years, 9 months, and 11 days. He was one of ten children, all who have preceded him in death, except two brothers, Elijah of California and James L. of North Vernon. The family moved to Indiana when William was a small lad and he has spent most of his life in Boone and Hamilton County.

He was united in marriage to Martha Ellen Clinger, December 8, 1880. Five children were born to this union, namely Almeda Clark of Lebanon, Mary Frances VanCleave, who preceded him in death in 1911, Mrs. Bessie Brown of Sheridan, Mitchell H. and Grove H also of Lebanon.

Mr. Summitt moved his family 1/4 mile west of Sheridan in 1895 and resided there until his death. "Uncle Bill," as he was affectionately called by all, was a familiar figure on the streets of Sheridan and helped in the erection of many of the present buildings in Sheridan. He was known to all as an upright, honest citizen and was uncomplaining during his illness, which began 2 years ago, and met each turn with a smile, as was his way of life. He often spoke of his willingness and preparedness to go and was conscious to the last, passing into a gentle sleep, from which he never awoke. He leaves his widow, four children, 29 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren, several nieces and nephews and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

Martha Ellen died June 6, 1952, and is also buried in the Crown View Cemetery, in Sheridan. Her obituary of June 6, 1952, read:

Martha Summitt Dies At Age of 88--.
Martha Ellen Summitt, 88, passed away Friday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bessie Brown, two miles south of Baker's Corner. She had been ill for a year. She was born in Boone County a daughter of John and Eliza (Brouhard) Klingler. She was married to William Harrison Summitt, who died January 1934. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Almeda Clark of Lebanon; two sons, Grover and Mitchell of Sheridan; 23 grand-children and 15 great grand-children. Rev. Jesse Griffith conducted services. Pallbearers were Andrew Jackson, Kenneth Lutz, Harold Spear, LeRoy Clark, Tom Brown and John Brown.

The Children of William Harrison and Martha Klingler Summitt

Five children were born to William Harrison and Martha Klingler Summitt:

1. Almeda Summitt Clark of Lebanon, Indiana. She was born in Indiana. She married (1) Roy Farmer September 23, 1899, in Hamilton county, Indiana and (2) Levi Clark. While this author knows of no family record relating to her birth, Social Security death records indicate she was born June 14, 1882 in Boone county, the same date as her sister Mary Frances. It would seem that they were twins. Boone county birth records reflect that the Farmer-Summit family had sons, William and Roy, born September 9, 1900 and April 12, 1904, respectively. As noted above, Almeda's eldest son is listed as living in his grandfather's home in 1910 as Willis Farmer, age 10. Almeda died October 30, 1969 and her obituary indicates her age as 86. She is buried in the Beck Cemetery at Darlington, Indiana.

Local newspaper obituary "Almeda Clark Dies; Funeral Rites Friday" (1969):

Sheridan--. Mrs. Almeda Clark, 86, R. 3, Sheridan, died Wednesday at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Danville, Ill. Born in Indiana, Mrs. Clark had lived most of her life in the Sheridan community. She was the widow of Levi Clark who died in 1930. Survivors include four children: Charles, Catlin, Ill.; Granville, of Terre Haute; William, Kokomo; and Jesse of Sheridan. There are 12 grandchildren; a brother, Mitchell Summitt and a sister, Mrs. Bessie Stowers, both of Sheridan. Rev. Jesse Griffith of the Sheridan Church of God will be in charge and burial will occur in Beck Cemetery near Darlington.

2. Mary Frances Summitt VanCleve was born June 14, 1882 in Boone county, Indiana. In February 1882. She married William VanCleve. Boone county birth records reflect that she had a daughter born on April 23, 1904. She died on April 6, 1911, in Hamilton County, Indiana. She is buried in Crown View Cemetery, Sheridan, Hamilton County, Indiana. She is listed in the 1900 Hamilton County census in her father's household as Mary F. born in February 1882 in Indiana.

Sheridan Indiana local obituary in 1911:

Mrs. William VanCleve, age 27 died at the family residence in the south-east part of town, Thursday night, of acute inflammation of the stomach and bowels. She was only sick a few days and her death was sudden and unexpected. She was the daughter of William Summitt of this place and leaves a husband and three small children. The funeral was held at the residence Saturday at 10:00 and was conducted by Rev. Payne with burial at Crown View.

3. Bessie May Summitt Brown, was born in November 28, 1886--her obituary says in Clinton county. She married Isaac Melvin Brown November 4, 1907. They had five children: William Wheatley, John Harlan, Cora Irene, Opal May, and Martha Evaline. After Melvin Brown died on July 1, 1945, Bessie May married Elisha Stowers in 1955. She is listed in the 1900 Hamilton County census in her father's household as Bessie M. born in 1885 in Indiana. She died January 3, 1971, in Hamilton County. She is buried in Crown View Cemetery, Sheridan, Hamilton County, Indiana.

MITCHELL SUMMITT CONTINUES THE WILLIAM HARRISON SUMMITT NAME

As has been noted, William Harrison and Martha Ellen Klingler Summitt (1856-1934) failed to perpetuate his name with their children. It was left to his son, Mitchell Summitt, to begin the name line again by naming a son William Harrison.

Mitchell's William Harrison Summitt was born April 20, 1913. As a young lad, he left home to live with his Uncle Walter Sherley residing in Mulberry, Arkansas. He left the Sherley home to bum around for a few years. In 1938, he married Alberta Juanita Sherley, a daughter of William Frank Sherley. They had a son named William Harrison Summitt, Jr., October 23, 1939. This marriage was short-lived and William Harrison Jr. was raised by his mother.

Thereafter, William Harrison, Sr., married Josephine (maiden name unknown) in 1941. He was deferred from the draft into the military during World War II due to his position at General Electric in Syracuse in New York. They had a son named Valentino William Summitt on June 14, 1951, in Syracuse, New York (he died September 14, 1998 in San Antonio, Texas).

William Harrison Sr. & Donna Wade Summitt

Josephine died in 1969 and William Harrison Summitt, Sr., married Donna Wade on May 12, 1972, in Craighead county, Arkansas. They made their home just outside Ash Flat, Arkansas. Both worked at a local bank until prostate cancer seriously affected William's health. William Harrison, Sr., died on June 5, 1999, in Ash Flat, Sharp county, Arkansas, survived by Donna Wade Summitt.

In the meantime, the now divorced Alberta Sherley Summitt with young William Harrison Jr., moved to Albion, Michigan. Alberta there met and married Claude Sills. From this marriage a daughter, Frances Lucelle Sills, was born October 2, 1943. (There were two births prior to Frances but both did not live: James Edward Sills born September 19, 1941 in Albion, Michigan and Helen Louise Sills born Sept. 22, 1942 in Concord, Michigan).

The marriage to Claude Sills ended late in 1944. Alberta with William and Frances moved to Alberta's parent's farm located just outside Ash Flat, Arkansas during 1945. While living with her parents Alberta met Melton Rogers, whom she married--Milton bringing to the marriage his four children, Murl, Donald, Lilly Faye, and Otis. After some wandering, the family moved to Manila, Arkansas, where they lived until Milton's death on 2 Feb. 1974. During this marriage the family was engaged with cotton for the most part: planting, hoeing and picking. During other times Milton worked for various landowners at farm chores clearing ditch banks, driving tractors, and general handy man duties. At times the family followed the Fall fruit harvest to Michigan: eventually Frances, Donald and Otis would settle in the area of Paw Paw, Michigan due to these adventures. Murl lived her life in Arkansas. Lilly Faye married a Metcalf and moved to California.

William Harrison Summitt, Jr., while living near Manila attended a community high school named Blackwater High School. After graduating from high school at Blackwater, William worked as a handy man (grounds keeper) at Cherokee Village in 1957. Cherokee Village at the time was a budding retirement community. Later he moved to Jonesboro, Arkansas and began working in a factory. In Jonesboro, he met Lucetra (Sally) Cornelia Stevens and married her July 10, 1960 in Craighead county, Arkansas. Eventually, William and Sally started their own Office Cleaning business in Jonesboro where they have resided for many years.

FINAL COMMENT

This article is primarily to focus attention on the family line of the first William Harrison Summitt (1829-) who moved from Kentucky on west to the Indiana frontier as a young man. We do not know what motivated the move. Perhaps, the trek west was in the same spirit of Christian and George Summitt when they left homes in Pennsylvania to settle "Summit Station" on the frontier in then Bourbon county, Kentucky only a few years after the founding of Boonesboro. This author happens here to follow the name of William Harrison. But we have been told that the original William Harrison and his wife Isabelle Morris had ten children. We do not even know the identifies of all ten children--But each has a line to follow. This author hopes that Summitt researchers will pay attention to all of the Summitts that originate from the early Kentucky settlers and share their finding with all.

In case you didn't see it, Pat Head Summitt made the cover of Sports Illustrated. She was also inducted into the Hall of Fame. Read the Associated Press article on page 15.

Dear Paul & Mary,

Thank you for your cheerful cards which you sent me as a "get well."

I have now had both hips replaced. The second was done three weeks ago. In about a month, I will be a new man. Before this, the arthritis in the hips was quite painful. It's a blessed relief.

Thanks again. Best wishes and prayers for you.

Sincerely

(Fr.) Jim Summitt

We're glad to hear he's feeling better. Hope this newsletter finds you and all of yours well. Don't forget to send us anything of interest to the family. Births, deaths, marriages, etc. It's all important when it comes to helping to trace the family line down.

Don't forget to vote next month. Till the next issue . . .

Thomas, Summitt elected to 'Hall'

Six tabbed for basketball honor

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Isiah Thomas and Pat Summitt both have their share of championship rings. Now both have spots in the Basketball Hall of Fame.

They headed a class of six inductees chosen Wednesday. The others were three-time NBA scoring champion Bob McAdoo; Morgan Wootten, the winningest high school coach ever; Kentucky athletic director C.M. Newton; and Danny Biasone, the inventor of the shot clock.

James Worthy, honored with Thomas in 1996 as one of the NBA's greatest 50 players, was one of 10 nominees who did not receive enough votes to qualify for the hall.

"As a young guy growing up in the league, you thought about the Hall of Fame as the place where the best of the best went and kind of the old folks were, and all the great stories were told about these people," said Thomas, who led Indiana to the 1981 NCAA championship and the Detroit Pistons to the 1989 and 1990 NBA titles.

"I don't think any of us as players thought of ourselves as ever being inducted or going into the Hall of Fame."

The 6-foot-1 guard was an All-Star in 12 of his 13 NBA seasons, averaging 19.2 points and 9.3 assists for his career. He ranks fourth in assists and ninth in steals in NBA history.

After leaving the Pistons in 1994, he became part-owner and general manager of the Toronto Raptors. Last year, he bought the Continental Basketball Association for $10 million.

Summitt, who has led Tennessee's women's team to six national championships in 26 years, credited her assistants and players with keeping her driven.

"My philosophy has been consistent," she said while on vacation in Panama City, Fla. "Surround yourself with quality people and winners."

Summitt was 22 when she took over at Tennessee.

"I thought, 'I'm in over my head.' I had never coached a practice, much less a game," she said.

Now, Summitt has a 728-150 record, including a 39-0 mark and a national title in the 1997-98 season. She also coached the U.S. women to a gold medal at the 1984 Olympics.

McAdoo played with seven teams over 14 years and won two NBA titles with the Los Angeles Lakers. He was a four-time All-Star, league MVP in 1975, and played in Italy from 1986-93.

"I just thought it was something that eventually would come," McAdoo, now a Miami Heat assistant coach, said of his selection.

Wootten has a 1,210-183 record at DeMatha High School in Hyattsville, Md., where he has coached since 1956.

"The energy of these kids keeps you going and revitalizes you," he said. "And the fundamentals never change, either in basketball or life."

Newton, at Kentucky since 1989, was elected as a contributor to the game. He was a player on the 1951 NCAA championship team at Kentucky, and compiled a 509-375 record as a coach at three colleges.
